September 6-7, 2018 Case Western Reserve University, Cleveland, OH

The annual Big Data Neuroscience (BDN) workshop brings together researchers in neuroscience, computer science, statistics, and related disciplines to focus on managing Big Data, enhancing data sharing, incorporating high performance computing, and using provenance metadata to support reproducible neuroscience research.

The BDN workshop is being organized by ACNN and this year it will be held in Cleveland, OH from September 6-7, 2018. The workshop will feature keynote and invited talks together with lightning talks, poster sessions, and panel discussion focused on translational neuroscience.

Travel Scholarships
We will support a number of travel scholarships for students, post-doctoral scholars, and young investigators that will include travel and lodging. We encourage early registration at: http://www.neurosciencenetwork.org/ACNN_Workshop_2018.html.

Deadline for submission of travel scholarship applications is August 15, 2018. Please note NSF travel scholarships is available only to US residents.

Call for Posters and Lightning Talks
This year the BDN workshop will feature awards for the three top-ranked posters/lightning talk (5 minutes) abstracts! Please submit your poster/lightning talk abstracts during registration at: http://www.neurosciencenetwork.org/ACNN_Workshop_2018.html or through the EasyChair submission site: https://easychair.org/conferences/?conf=bdn2018

Deadline for submission of poster/lightning talk abstracts is August 5, 2018.
